Entrance Information:
3240 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104

1. The southeast entrance into Van Pelt – Dietrich Library from Blanche P. Levy Park (College Hall Green) has a level entrance with an automatic door and card-swipe system. Call 215.898.5948, to have your name added to the door activation list. After midnight only the Undergraduate Study Center (ground floor) is open.

   • The main entrance to Van Pelt - Dietrich Library Center is at the top of a flight of stairs.

Elevator Information:
• There is a bank of three elevators near the entrance to the Van Pelt - Dietrich Library Center. These elevators access all floors.
• There is another bank of elevators at the west end of the Van Pelt - Dietrich Library Center.

Accessible Restrooms:
• Ground Floor - men's and women's.
• Third floor, West - 2 unisex accessible restrooms.

Building Information:
• There are seminar rooms, reading rooms and conference rooms which can be reached by the elevators.
• Stacks may be too narrow for people using wheelchairs. Assistance in retrieving materials is available from staff in the Circulation Department.
• The Van Pelt - Dietrich Library Center is directly connected on all floors.