

PennAccess: Levy Center for Oral Health Research

Entrance Information:

4010 Locust Street. Philadelphia. PA. 19104

1. Entry to the Levy Center, as well as the entire Dental Complex, is located through the 40th Street entrance of the Robert Schattner Center. The complex is connected internally. There are elevators in the Levy Center, the Schattner Center and the Evans Building.

Elevator Information:

- There is one elevator on the east side of the building.
- There is one elevator on the west side of the building.

Accessible Restrooms:

- First floor - men's and women's

Building Information:

- All floors have private/graduate laboratories.