Entrance Information:

4015 Walnut Street. Philadelphia. PA. 19104

1. The south, main entrance on Walnut St. is level to the sidewalk. It is open to the public 9am-5pm. After hours it is key code access only, but there is a telephone located beside the door. The freight elevator is down the right hallway. This is the only entrance to the building.

Elevator Information:

- There is a freight elevator down the right hallway from the entrance. It is key access only and occasional visitors should call ahead. This elevator goes to the Daily Pennsylvanian Office, which is on the second floor.

Accessible Restrooms:

- There are no public restrooms in this building.

Building Information:

- The Daily Pennsylvanian is located on the second floor with the entrance located on the first floor just inside the building entrance. Use the phone next to this entrance to arrange to use the freight elevator.
- Entry to two (2) retail shops, flanking the front door, located on the first floor is accessible.

- The upper floors of the building house the University Records Center.
- For more information, call the Building Manager at 215.573.4903.
